Tears

Text: Eva Manzano Plaza
Illustrations: Mo Gutiérrez Serna

Hardcover/ 20 x 30 cm / 68 pp.

ISBN: 978-84-16427-27-7

The fascinating story of those drops that live in our eyes. Do you know that without tears we would see worse? That we would surely live part of the day with our eyes closed? Crying has turned us into the human beings that we are today, because tears have helped us to keep our eyes open to look at the world. With them, we communicate at birth, and also with them, we say goodbye to our beloved ones.

Tears have taught us to read the faces of the others and also to feel our own, because it remains hidden to us like the hidden face of the moon.

A poetic journey through mythical and legendary Japan. Gods, folktale characters and living beings with hearts cross Kami's path; who, with gestures of kindness, both simple and heroic, grows with each one of his adventures, and transmits wisdom to Ezo, leaving us a lyric echo and a vibrant need to do things well.

Entre los que se acercaron al santuario estaba también el anciano que me había ayudado con el asunto de la niña enferma. Me alegré mucho, ya que por fin podría agradecerle su consejo y directriz.

Cuando subí a su hombro, caía una de las flores del cerezo. La cogí entre mis patas y quise colocarla entre mi pelaje, así que me di la vuelta. Con mucha sorpresa y emoción comprobé que mis colas eran ahora cinco, como cinco son los pétalos de las flores del cerezo.
